2028 Summer Newsletter

It was resolved that the Summer Newsletter would be produced as normal, accepting the Joanne may not be able to design due to other work pressures. The following articles (with photographs) should be provided to the Clerk by Mid - May (16th):

Cllr Miles	New Council
	Summer Show
Cllr Baldwin	Allotments (all three)
Cllr Morgan	Boxing
	Football
	Rugby
Cllr L Lewis MBE	Outgoing Council

Clerk	Council expenditure
	Christmas Lights
	Grant Aid
Laura Dufty	Disability Play
Zara Jones	Creative Craft
	Christmas Show
Cllr Gray	School

With the aim of completing by Mid June which may involve agreeing final version via e mail

2029 Annual Summer Show (12th August 2017)

Members felt that the Annual Summer Show last year was a success and should follow the same format:

Incorporating the entry form into the Summer Newsletter

Members would consider any classes that should be added and any that should be removed (feedback by next meeting)

Agreed the Clerk would contact:

The School
The Church regarding provision of refreshments
The Judges

to determine their availability.

Cllr. Morgan suggested the possibility of holding a joint event with the Rugby Club. Members agreed it would not be possible on the same day as the Show and it was probably too late to arrange anything this year but agreed to discuss at a future meeting.

2030 Commemorating World War 1

Members suggested the following possibilities:

Re-dedicating (or dedicating if not already done so) WW1 Plaques
Cleaning the headstones of WW1 soldiers

Clerk to contact Reverend Gareth Coombes to ascertain how may headstones involved

Agreed the Clerk would write to the Community Centre Secretary raising these concerns
