2057 Summer Play/Sport Options (possible presentation from GAVO)

Proposal by GAVO presented to meeting _ Members felt that 2 hours per day could well be difficult to parents to work around. It was also felt that the suggested cost for 2 hours per day was quite expensive.

The option of Summer Sport was considered but it was felt it was poorly attended last year.

Members were very keen to provide some activities during the holidays and agreed:

Summer Fun Day

The Clerk would contact GAVO regarding the organisation of a fun day (if possible week commencing 31st July) and supplement the items that GAVO intend providing with Bouncy Castle and or Water play feature (possibility of Junior School to be explored as venue).

Cllr Baldwin would contact Paul Hudson CCBC to try and arrange attendance of suitable craft stalls

Cllr Davies would try and obtain Raffle prizes

Cllr Jones would try and arrange support from Co-Op

Summer Seaside Trip

Members agreed to provide a Summer day trip to Barry Island (free for children 7-11) with a nominal (possible £5) charge for other children and parents (All children to be accompanied by parent/s

Clerk to obtain prices of buses for the 17th August

2058 Summer Newsletter

It was resolved that the Summer Newsletter would be produced as normal, accepting the Joanne may not be able to design due to other work pressures.

The following articles (with photographs) should be provided to the Clerk by 21st May:

Cllr Miles	New Council
	Summer Show
Cllr Baldwin	Allotments (all three)

Cllr Morgan	Boxing Football Rugby
Cllr L Lewis MBE Clerk	Outgoing Council Council expenditure Christmas Lights Grant Aid
Laura Dufty Zara Jones	Disability Play Creative Craft
Cllr Gray	School Christmas Show

With the aim of completing by Mid June which may involve agreeing final version via e mail

2059 Annual Summer Show (12th August 2017)

Members felt that the Annual Summer Show last year was a success and should follow the same format:

Incorporating the entry form into the Summer Newsletter

Members agreed they would maintain the same classes:

Children's classes to be a Seaside theme

5 welsh cakes

Entry dates 8th, 9th and 10th August

Show on the 12th August

Venue for lunch Tylers Arms

Cllr Gray will arrange tables (sort out delivery closer to date)
