2013 Gwent Police Report

3 calls dealt with in previous month

11 reports of crime

4 reports of ASB (mainly neighbour/domestic issues)

The Chair agreed that Mr Tucker could speak at this stage of the meeting

Mr Tucker raised the issue of parking tickets being issued in Wern Cresecent when there was no residents parking

PC Broad confirmed this had been done on Sunday and had she know that

Mr Tucker was a resident she would have warned him.

Cllr Gray confirmed it was a regular topic of discussion with the Police and that it was not uncommon for Members to raise such issues.

It was agreed that Caerphilly County Borough Council Highways should be invited to the next meeting to generally discuss Parking restrictions and Yellow lines around the village'

2014 To receive apologies for absence.

Cllr. A Blackman

Cllr S Morgan

2015 To receive and approve the minutes of:

- To receive and approve the minutes of the Ordinary Meeting 7th February 2017

Members required the following amendments:

2007 Cllr Baldwin to report on Agenda item re Community Sports Grant

Number of lights ordered 10

Include greater detail regarding the Asset Transfer issue

The initial proposal from Cllr Morgan for a letter of support was agreed with Cllr Gray suggesting amendments (which were agreed unanimously) covering free use for the youths and children of the village, that the facility be enclosed and locked when not in use and/or at night, the Community Centre Caretaker would open and close the facility, the Community Centre would recover a small charge for use by organised groups outside normal Community Centre Opening hours, that these assurance be incorporated and that The Community Council and Community Centre would meet every 3 - 6 months to ensure adherence to the above and review compliance with these issues.

2009 Cancel cheque for £4-60

2010 Should read Public Health Bill

2016 To receive update on meeting regarding Community Sport and agree appropriate action

Cllr Baldwin confirmed she had attended the meeting and that Caerphilly Sports Officers confirmed the bid should come from the Community Council as it would be independent. Cllr Gray questioned why the Chair had not attended the meeting and why bid could not come from the Community Centre Committee.

It was agreed that a grant application would be submitted and the Clerk would liaise with CCBC Sports Development

2017 To agree contents of letter of support to Community Centre regarding Asset Transfer bid

It was agreed the original letter drafted by the Clerk would be sent to the Community Centre, including the issues included above and that the facility should be available free of charge to youths and children of the village during daylight hours in all school holidays

2018 To receive information from Caerphilly County Borough Council regarding forthcoming Elections

Members requested that the Clerk obtain packs and leave them for Collection in the Chamber

2019 Agree renewal of One Voice Wales Membership

2020 Chairs Report

The Chair reported that he and Cllr Gray (Chair last year) had had their photographs taken

The Chair thanked all those present for their kind thoughts and cards received after his recent bereavement.
